DEMINISHING DOLLAR
Never content to remain out of the news columns for any great length of time, James Caesar Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians, is back in them again.

Periodically Mr. Petrillo bobs up with some new wage demands for members of his union directed against some branch of the music business. And Mr. Petrillo very effectively ties up the various branches of the music business until he gets what he wants.

This time the object of Mr. Petrillo's attentions is the recording and transcription business. As usual, Mr. Petrillo seeks wage increases—and his demands definitely are not those of a piker. Mr. Petrillo asks wage increases which by industry reckoning would amount to 533 per cent for popular discs and 233 per cent for symphonic recordings. This makes the original 30 per cent asked by the United Auto Workers, CIO, look like a drop in the bucket.

Mr. Petrillo may not get all he asks, but if he got no more than half, it wouldn't be hard to figure out the effect on the price of recordings.

Records aren't absolute necessities of life, but the results of a wage increase of several hundred per cent in the record business would be bound to be felt in the various ramifications of the entertainment world.

Mr. Petrillo may feel that his wage increase policy has nothing to do with inflation, but if labor leaders in all branches of industry should emulate his outrageous demands, it would not be long before the value of the dollar approached the vanishing point.

President Truman hopped over a low boxwood hedge on the day before his birthday. But that wasn't nearly as strenuous as wrestling with a calf.

Informing Dad he had been eating horse meat for weeks and didn't know it was a matter calling for feminine diplomacy.

Announcement the nation's wheat crop will total more than one billion bushels appears on the same page with news bread lines are forming in many cities.

NO TEACHER SHORTAGE

GREAT BEND, Kan.—(INS)—E. R. Sheldon, Great Bend superintendent of schools, gave two pairs of nylon stockings to each of the city's schoolmarm who stayed throughout the term. He believes this was instrumental in reducing teacher turnover, so this year Sheldon is promising three pairs to each teacher at the end of the first month of classes.

The present campaign is one of those which sometimes come along, in which broad, party issues are rather more significant than the candidates themselves.
This year, candidates are members of teams. Each Republican candidate for Congress is a specially important member of the Republican team.

It is as a member of the Pennsylvania Republican team in Congress that the need for Congressman Gerlach is paramount. There is much probability that Pennsylvania's Republican delegation will be the largest state bloc in Congress. If this is true (as it can be if every district such as this is careful to elect its own Republican candidate) Pennsylvania can be restored to the proud leadership it once held in national affairs.

As for the Democratic candidates, it is a waste of time to think of them as individuals. The Democratic Representatives from this State in the present session have hardly ever voted as individuals. They have voted like sheep, en masse. And it is not on record that any of the Democratic candidates have promised to vote as individuals in the next session.

Quite the contrary. Democratic leaders in this state have made a "deal" with the CIO-PAC bosses which, so far as Congress is concerned, has only one meaning: that the Democrats who are elected to Congress will obey fully whatever orders are sent them by the pro-Communists.

No Democratic hopeful would be on the ticket this year if he had not successfully passed a form of secret examination. Before the slate was picked, the Democratic bosses and the PAC bosses assured themselves that each candidate could be "depended on"—that he would not let his personal views get in the way of the plans which the pro-Communists have worked out for the American people.

A Democratic vote for Congress in this election is a vindication of all the blunders and false steps, the put-and-take policies, of the present Administration in Washington.

You can go a bit farther. A Democratic victory will be a "mandate" to go back to such programs as price control—a vote for new meat shortages.

In this county, the spearhead of the Democratic campaign for Congress was led by the man who produced 95 per cent of the price and supply breakdown in this country, the former head of the OPA, Chester Bowles.

Chester Bowles is an undying champion of controls—the tighter the better. He is the worst enemy of the free enterprise American system who ever got into high office. His personal attitude on these matters is reflected in every shortage we suffer—housing, automotive, meat, sugar, soap, etc., etc.

There is no doubt that Chester Bowles thinks President Truman made a mistake in scrapping price controls. While he didn't put it exactly that way, what he did say adds up to no other conclusion.

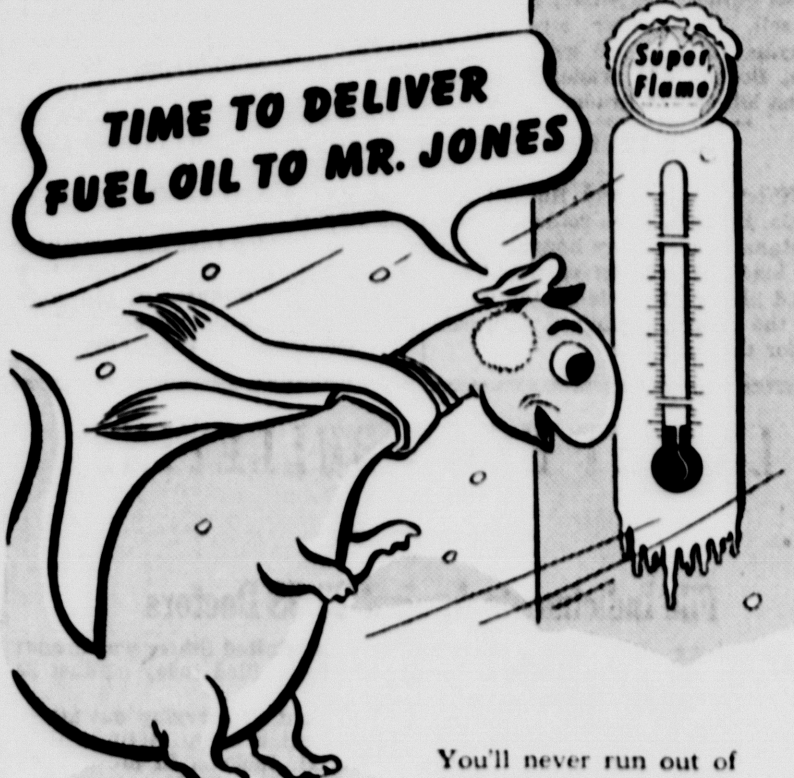

The fact that he made a personal trip to Bucks County to beg for Democratic votes means only one thing—that he hopes to see those elected who will vote to resume price controls and scarcities.

It is the best possible confirmation of the rumors which are flying thick and fast—that the President's "de-control" decision was a political trick, intended to last only for the period of the campaign, and that if the Democrats get elected on November 5th, we will be back under tighter controls than ever, with worse shortages.

In this county, there is only one good answer.
RE-ELECT CONGRESSMAN GERLACH!

There is, of course, one easy way every voter can be sure his vote goes to the Republican candidate for Congress, and that is to vote straight Republican—simply put a single "X" after the word "Republican" where it appears on the ballot.

A Summary of The News
Moslems were accused by the Congress party working committee of having brought about the fatal rioting in eastern Bengal. British officials must share some responsibility, it was said, for not halting bloodshed.
Washington sought to ease the sugar shortage by declaring 13 eastern States a shortage area to which beet sugar processors might ship and obtain Federal aid. The real hardship, however, was being caused by the blockade on Cuban sugar because of the maritime strike.
President Truman increased by $165,000,000 his estimate of funds to go into Federal public works this year. Despite occupation costs and pay increases the Army will try to live within its $8,000,000,000 budget figure, General Eisenhower said.

lend, a brilliant lawyer. I have tried with him on cases, fought in court, golfed with him, fished and hunted with him, and lived with him for years. I never found him too busy to advise a younger member of the Bar, no matter how busy he might be in his office. He is kind and courteous. He enjoyed the confidence of the members of the Bar and the juries before whom he tried his cases. It is too bad that the younger members of this Bar do not have the opportunity to have in Senator James in action in the trial of a case. He was not without faults, but he was a great lawyer and a great friend, and so may he rest in peace."

Attorney Isaac J. VanArtsdalen, chairman of the committee on resolutions appointed by Judge Keller, said that he often as a young man, marveled at the eloquence of Mr. James as a trial lawyer."

"Associates for many years, both the practice of law in this court and also socially. I always admired the skill of Mr. James as a lawyer. Commented Attorney Thomas Ross, Doylestown. "He had a charming position. He had no rival in my opinion at this Bar with the probable exception of the late Harry Im who pressed him very hard. His career was a brilliant one as an attorney."

Judge Calvin S. Boyer said that he looked upon Mr. James as "the deer of the Bucks County Bar for many years." He described him as a land mark that has now disappeared in the profession of law Bucks County.

"Senator James was exceptionally helpful as a trial lawyer," Judge Boyer said. "He was also a master sarcasm and could very cleverly cut to the quick. He always fully prepared his cases and he knew the law and his case thoroughly before coming into court." Attorney Lawrence Monroe, who is associated with Senator James in his Bristol law offices, spoke for the members of the staff, when he said: "We of the office were very

Tullytown Council To Consider Bus Service

Neibauer Bus Company for action by town council at its next regular meeting, with consideration being given whether council should support the application of the Burlington-Bristol Bus Company before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Trenton on November 15th for right to operate from Bristol to Trenton, or make application to the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission for an order compelling the Neibauer Bus Company to extend their service as desired by Tullytown residents. The chairman, Mr. Summers, suggested that the Richmond Bus Company be approached

as to whether it would accept the support of Tullytown in bringing their buses from the Pennsylvania Maritime Academy down to the intersection of Bordentown Road and Fallsington avenue in Tullytown.

Upon motion by Mr. Swangler it was finally agreed that the townpeople's committee would wait upon decision of the borough council at its next regular meeting on November 12th, as to what further action should be taken by the people of the town.

DEMINISHING DOLLAR

Never content to remain out of the news columns for any great length of time, James Caesar Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians, is back in them again.

Periodically Mr. Petrillo hobs up with some new wage demands for members of his union directed against some branch of the music business. And Mr. Petrillo very effectively ties up the various branches of the music business until he gets what he wants.

This time the object of Mr.
Petrillo's attentions is the recording and transcription business. As usual, Mr. Petrillo seeks wage increases—and his demands definitely are not those of a piker.

Mr. Petrillo asks wage increases which by industry reckoning would amount to 533 per cent for popular discs and 233
per cent for symphonic recordings. This makes the original 30 per cent asked by the United Auto Workers, CIO, look like a drop in the bucket.

Mr. Petrillo may not get all he asks, but if he got no more than half, it wouldn't be hard to figure out the effect on the price of recordings.

Records aren't absolute necessities of life, but the results of a wage increase of several hundred per cent in the record business would be bound to be felt in the various ramifications of the entertainment world.

Mr. Petrillo may feel that his wage increase policy has nothing to do with inflation, but if labor leaders in all branches of industry should emulate his outrageous demands, it would not be long before the value of the dollar approached the vanishing point.

President Truman hopped over a low boxwood hedge on the day before his birthday. But that wasn't nearly as strenuous as wrestling with a calf.

Informing Dad he had been eating horse meat for weeks and didn't know it was a matter calling for feminine diplomacy.

Announcement the nation's wheat crop will total more than one billion bushels appears on the same page with news bread lines are forming in many cities.

NO TEACHER SHORTAGE

GREAT BEND, Kan.—(INS)—E.
R. Sheldon, Great Bend superintendent of schools, gave two pairs of nylon to each of the city's schoolmarms who stayed throughout the term. He believes this was instrumental in reducing teacher turnover, so this year Sheldon is promising three pairs to each teacher at the end of the first month of classes.

RE-ELECT CONGRESSMAN GERLACH!

The present campaign is one of those which sometimes come along, in which broad party issues are rather more significant than the candidates themselves.

This year, candidates are members of teams. Each Republican candidate for Congress is a specially important member of the Republican team.

It is as a member of the Pennsylvania Republican team in Congress that the need for Congressman Gerlach is paramount.
There is much probability that Pennsylvania's Republican delegation will be the largest state bloc in Congress. If this is true (as it can be if every district such as this is careful to elect its own Republican candidate) Pennsylvania can be restored to the proud leadership it once held in national affairs.

As for the Democratic candidates, it is a waste of time to think of them as individuals. The Democratic Representatives from this State in the present session have hardly ever voted as individuals. They have voted like sheep, en masse. And it is not on record that any of the Democratic candidates have promised to vote as individuals in the next session.

Quite the contrary. Democratic leaders in this state have made a "deal" with the CIO-PAC bosses which, so far as Congress is concerned, has only one meaning: that the Democrats who are elected to Congress will obey fully whatever orders are sent them by the pro-Communists.

No Democratic hopeful would be on the ticket this year if he had not successfully passed a form of secret examination. Before the slate was picked, the Democratic bosses and the PAC bosses assured themselves that each candidate could be "dependent on"—that he would not let his personal views get in the way of the plans which the pro-Communists have worked out for the American people.

A Democratic vote for Congress in this election is a vindication of all the blunders and false steps, the put-and-take policies, of the present Administration in Washington.

You can go a bit farther. A Democratic victory will be a "mandate" to go back to such programs as price control—a vote for new meat shortages.

In this county, the spearhead of the Democratic campaign for Congress was led by the man who produced 95 per cent of the price and supply breakdown in this country, the former head of the OPA, Chester Bowles.

Chester Bowles is an undying champion of controls—the tighter the better. He is the worst enemy of the free enterprise American system who ever got into high office. His personal attitude on these matters is reflected in every shortage we suffer —housing, automotive, meat, sugar, soap, lard, etc., etc.

There is no doubt that Chester Bowles thinks President Truman made a mistake in scrapping price controls. While he didn't put it exactly that way, what he did say adds up to no other conclusion.

The fact that he made a personal trip to Bucks County to beg for Democratic votes means only one thing—that he hopes to see those elected who will vote to resume price controls and scarcities.

It is the best possible confirmation of the rumors which are flying thick and fast—that the President's "de-control" decision was a political trick, intended to last only for the period of the campaign, and that if the Democrats get elected on November 5th, we will be back under tighter controls than ever, with worse shortages.

In this county, there is only one good answer.
RE-ELECT CONGRESSMAN GERLACH!

There is, of course, one easy way every voter can be sure his vote goes to the Republican candidate for Congress, and that is to vote straight Republican—simply put a single "X"
after the word "Republican" where it appears on the ballot.

A Summary of The News

Muslims were accused by the Congress party working committee of having brought about the fatal rioting in eastern Bengal. British officials must share some responsibility, it was said, for not halting bloodshed.

Washington sought to ease the sugar shortage by declaring 13
eastern States a shortage area to which beet sugar processors might ship and obtain Federal aid. The real hardship, however, was being caused by the blockade on Cuban sugar because of the maritime strike.

President Truman increased by $165,000,000 his estimate of funds to go into Federal public works this year. Despite occupation costs and pay increases the Army will try to live within its $8,000,000,000 budget

Tributes Paid To Late Senator James

friend, a brilliant lawyer. I have served with him on cases, fought him in court, golfed with him, fished and hunted with him, and lived with him for years. I never found him too busy to advise a younger member of the Bar, no matter how busy he might be in his office. He was kind and courteous. He enjoyed the confidence of the members of the Bar and the juries before whom he tried his cases. It is too bad that the younger members of this Bar did not have the opportunity to have seen Senator James in action in the trial of a case. He was not without faults, but he was a great lawyer and a great friend, and so may he rest in peace."

Attorney Isaac J. VanArtsdalen, chairman of the committee on resolutions appointed by Judge Keller, said that he often as a young man, "marveled at the eloquence of Mr. James as a trial lawyer."

"Associates for many years, both in the practice of law in this court and also socially, I always admired the skill of Mr. James as a lawyer," commented Attorney Thomas Ross, of Doylestown. "He had a charming disposition. He had no rival in my opinion at this Bar with the probable exception of the late Harry Grim who pressed him very hard. His career was a brilliant one as an attorney."

Judge Calvin S. Boyer said that he looked upon Mr. James as "the leader of the Bucks County Bar for many years." He described him as "a land mark that has now disappeared in the profession of law in Bucks County."

"Senator James was exceptionally skillful as a trial lawyer," Judge Boyer said. "He was also a master at sarcasm and could very cleverly cut to the quick. He always carefully prepared his cases and he knew the law and his case thoroughly before coming into court."

Attorney Lawrence Monroe, who was associated with Senator James in his Bristol law offices, spoke for other members of the staff, when he said: "We of the office were very fond of Mr. James; he was always very considerate and kind to all of us, at all times . . . he was an exceptional man."

Members of the Bar attending the meeting included the following: Judge Hiram H. Keller and Judge Calvin S. Boyer, Thomas Ross, William H. Satterthwaite, Wesley Bunting, Harry Schallger, Isaac J. VanArtsdalen, J. Kirk Leatherman, Wilbur VanDine, William Power, District Attorney Edward G. Biester, Webster S. Achey, Edwin Satterthwaite, Fred Smith, all of Doylestown; Charles H. Orr, C. William Freed, C. William Freed, Jr., Claire G. Biehn, all of Quakertown; J. Leslie Kilcoyne, Louis Rubin, William J. Begley, William H. Conca, Lawrence Monroe, all of Bristol; Charles W. Roberts, Jr., Newtown; Donald B. Smith, Perkasee; J. Lawrence Grim, Perkasee; G. Sidney Cadwalader, 2nd, Yardley; Pearce H. C. Aul, Northampton Township.

Serving as pall bearers were two business associates of Mr. James, Horace N. Davis, Esq., and Lawrence Monroe, Esq.; four Bristol attorneys, J. Leslie Kilcoyne, Esq., William Conca, Esq., John P. Betz, Esq., and Louis Rubin, Esq.

Present at the funeral were members of the Memorial Committee of the State Senate and accompanied by the official Senate mace, the emblem of that legislative body's authority.

The Committee consisted of Senator Weldon B. Heyburn, of Concordville, Delaware County, and Senator Louis H. Farrell, of 9427 Bustleton avenue, Philadelphia.

The Senate mace was carried by John Havington, assistant Sergeant of Arms of the Senate. Other Senate officials present were W. R. Scott and Frank Price.

The Rev. George E. Boswell, rector of St. James Episcopal Church, was the officiating clergyman.

Tullytown Council To Consider Bus Service

Neibauer Bus Company for action by town council at its next regular meeting, with consideration being given whether council should support the application of the Burlington-Bristol Bus Company before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Trenton on November 15th for right to operate from Bristol to Trenton, or make application to the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission for an order compelling the Neibauer Bus Company to extend their service as desired by Tullytown residents. The chairman, Mr. Summers, suggested that the Richmond Bus Company be approached

as to whether it would accept the support of Tullytown in bringing their buses from the Pennsylvania Maritime Academy down to the intersection of Bordentown Road and Fallsington avenue in Tullytown.

Upon motion by Mr. Swangler it was finally agreed that the townpeople's committee would wait upon decision of the borough council at its next regular meeting on November 12th, as to what further action should be taken by the people of the town.

Sportsmen's Briefs

By JOE ELBERSON

Pheasants released - - - on Saturday last 11 twelve-week-old pheasants were released on open hunting territory in the immediate vicinity of Bristol.

Two local clubs made this stocking possible. They are the Edgely Rod & Gun Club and the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association. A private poultry raiser reared the pheasants from day-old chicks received from the Pennsylvania Game Commission. The two local clubs shared in the expenses of raising these birds.

All the birds were in excellent condition. There were 10 hen birds and 31 cock pheasants in the lot.

Opens tomorrow - - - the duck hunters in this area will get their first fling at migratory waterfowl shooting tomorrow when the 1946 season opens for both Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

And in spite of the fact that ammunition is very scarce and the waterfowl population reported at a minimum it is believed that more hunters will be on hand tomorrow to greet the opening of the season than in the last decade.

Bag limits have been considerably reduced this year as well as the number of shooting days. Daily bag limit on ducks is seven, and this shall not include more than one wood duck. On American and Red-breasted Mergansers, however, there is no possession limit after the first day. The season will run through December 9th.

Shooting hours are as follows: (Eastern Standard Time) All migratory game birds: From beginning of respective open seasons to October 31, inclusive, one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour before sunset; November 1, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.; November 2 to end of season, 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. (unless one-half hour before sunset occurs earlier, when Federal regulation automatically applies. One exception to these hours will be observed on the Delaware River below the Trenton Falls - - - when shooting from blinds or boats at least 100 yards from shore, the Federal one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour before sunset regulation applies throughout the season, except on November 1, when shooting before 9 a. m. is unlawful.

The following shooting methods are prohibited: automatic shotgun; hand-operated repeating shotgun of more than 3-shell capacity in magazine and chamber combined; all rifles; live duck or goose decoys; automobile; power boat; sailboat, or any device towed by power boat or sail boat; the placing or distributing in any manner of corn, wheat, oats, or other grain or product thereof, salt, or any kind of food, whereby migratory game birds are attracted or lured, regardless of distance between food and the hunter.

And you must have your Federal duck stamp, if over 16 years of age.

Fish Stocking - - - one of the finest stockings of panfish in recent years was made at Silver Lake on Monday when a truck from the State Fish Hatchery at Holmesburg delivered 1200 sunfish. The fish, all large, ranged up to 7 inches in length.
